

Azim Premji University to host lecture demonstration on Karnataka theatre music under 'Samskruti Sambhrama' programme series on December 19

December 17, 2024: Azim Premji University will host 'Raga-Ranga' a lecture demonstration on theatre music by acclaimed theatre artist Nudi Sudarshana on December 19. The event will be the third in the 'Samskruti-Sambhrama' cultural programme series presented by the University.

This demonstration will feature songs from 'Mitravinda Govinda', the first Kannada play and include songs from mythology, contemporary plays that address social issues and folklore-based experiments highlighting the historical background, diverse forms of theatre music and their significance.

The 'Samskruti Sambhrama' programme series aims to highlight rich aspects of the state's cultural milieu.

Azim Premji University, Bengaluru, hosts several initiatives that highlight Karnataka's cultural landscape. These include 'Kathavana', an annual children's literary festival, 'Sahitya Sahavasa', 'Krishna to Kaveri', a celebration of Karnataka's cultural heritage, and 'Noorakke Nooru Karnataka' on Radio Azim Premji University that highlight events, places and persons who occupy a pride of place in the state's history.
